

2016 CTF TRANSPORTATION SCHOLARSHIP

The California Transportation Foundation (CTF), a nonprofit organization, announces two $1000 scholarships: the CTF Transportation Scholarship for the academic year 2015/2016.

Applicants must be a college/university sophomore or junior enrolled in a major other than civil engineering and interested in pursuing a career in transportation after graduation. The award of the scholarship is based on the applicant's commitment to a career in transportation, current job skills, and academic record. Financial need may be considered, but it is not a primary factor.

Applicants must meet the following general criteria:

- Must be a United States citizen, permanent resident, or documented international student.
- Must be a college/university sophomore or junior enrolled in a major other than civil engineering.
- Must plan to pursue a career in transportation after graduation.
- Must provide an official transcript and proof of current enrollment.
- Must provide a sealed letter of recommendation from a school faculty member.
- Must provide a sealed letter of recommendation from a work supervisor.
- Cannot have received a CTF scholarship within the last two years.

The CTF Transportation Scholarship is supported by a gift to the CTF. The scholarship is endowed, and scholarship funds are administered by CTF, a nonprofit organization established in 1988 to "Promote and Recognize Excellence in California Transportation." It is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization with tax exempt status. The Federal EIN # is 68-0165257.
